

JPI Climate: Addressing shared challenges of climate change

Providing climate knowledge to support societal innovation and transformation

7 November 2017, COP23 Side Event at EU pavilion 14:00-15:30

Introducing JPI Climate: its Vision and Roles

Frank McGovern, Chairman of JPI Climate (Ireland): JPI Climate overview

Elisabeth Worliczek, JPI Climate Member (Austria): Outline of key activities too date

JPI Climate: its Products

- Reducing greenhouse gas emissions in homes - examples from four European countries – HOPE, Alina Herrmann
- European perceptions of climate change: energy preferences and societal transformation – EPCC, Katharine Steentjes
- Developing Climate Services for regional to local levels actions - an overview, Dagmar Bley, Co-Chair of ERA4CS
- Elmar Kriegler from SENSES project presents the project ambitions and the wider context in IPCC and SDGs
- Silvio Gualdi of MEDSCOPE on key drivers of Mediterranean climate to be used for the renewable energy sector

Panel Discussion - Hashtag #Back2Future

What will COP31 need and recognise as successful actions informed by science?

including:

Jürgen Kropp, CEO of climate media factory – PIK, Potsdam

Diogo DE GUSMÃO-SØRENSEN, Head of climate services, European Commission

Moderator:

Sally Stevens, Marketing&Communications Manager, Institute for Environmental Analytics